

David James
CONTROLLER

djames@southpace.com
205.271.7225

David James joined Southpace in July 2013 as Controller. David brings with him more than 15 years of accounting experience, including a background in the commercial real estate industry. He is also a graduate of Samford University.

As Controller, David is responsible for the financial reporting of Southpace Properties, Inc. and of the commercial properties under Southpace Management, Inc. including preparation of consolidated financial statements, cash flow statements, budget reports, quarterly payroll tax returns and income tax returns for the company and managed properties.