Profile

Kathy joined Southpace in February 2016, bringing with her over 25 years of experience in the real estate industry with a focus primarily on commercial development. She has operated and managed various development companies for almost 15 years, following a proven career as Senior Real Estate Manager for Walgreens.

Kathy's experience encompasses all aspects of project development, including site and market analysis, site planning and design, acquisitions, contract negotiations, zoning and entitlement, team management, pro-forma analysis and construction management.

In her role at Southpace, Kathy will focus on commercial retail developments, client-based development needs and renovations of historic buildings for adaptive reuse.
