

W. Neill Fox, CCIM

ASSOCIATE BROKER
& DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL ASSETS

nfox@southpace.com
205.326.2222

Profile

Neill joined Southpace after a 40 year career in commercial banking and commercial real estate finance, including five years as chief financial officer of a large commercial development company, and five years as vice president and director of real estate for a regional supermarket chain.

From November 1998 through 2008 Neill was executive vice president of real estate banking for Compass Bank in Birmingham, Alabama. Most recently Neill completed 39 months with the FDIC as a term employee reviewing commercial loans in banks located in Alabama, Georgia and Florida.

Neill earned his Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation in 1985. The CCIM designation involves completing graduate level courses in commercial real estate, preparing a portfolio of professional experience, and successfully completing a comprehensive examination.

Education

Samford University
B.A. - History and English
Louisiana State University
Graduate School of Banking
University of Georgia
School of Mortgage Banking

Accreditations/Awards/Memberships

- Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM)
- Birmingham Commercial Sales Club
- Birmingham Board of Realtors
- Holds basic, standard and advanced certificates from the American Institute of Banking